

Through the Lens Redemption

Text: Matthew 18:21-35

Purpose: Movies often tell us the story of redemption. The story of God is redeeming His people. It's often out of God's redemptive work in our lives that we forgive, show kindness and have mercy for others.

Opening Question: What are some great comeback movies?

Read and Discuss: Matthew 18:21-35

1. In the parable, what do you think it was like for the man to have all his debts cancelled? What might he have felt? What might he have told his family?
2. Why do you think this man wasn't able to cancel the debts that others owed him?
3. How are we like this man at times in our own life?
4. How have we been redeemed? What should our response be to God's redemption over our lives?
5. Who is one person that you need to forgive? Or who is someone to whom you need to show mercy?
